Mrs. J. H. Seay.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

AMELIA, VA., March 1.—This community was shocked to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. J. Ham Seay, who had resided near Morven. Mrs. Seay was the daughter of Colonel Austen, of Cumberland. She had heen sick about a month, and not improving was carried to Richmond on Tuesday to the Marmorial Hospital. Dr. Forbes, of Jetersville, and Judge Stephen I. Farrar, a relative, went down with her. She stood the trip well, it was thought, and Judge Farrar returned by the evening train. Next morning he was surprised to receive a tolegram announcing that Mrs. Seay died at the hospital at 1. P. M., only a few hours after getting there.

il P. M., only a few nours are getter there.

The remains were brought here on the mid-day train Wednesday, and carried by private conveyance to the family burying-ground at Dr. Anderson's, near Moryon. Mrs. Seay leaves her husband and four children, and her brothers, Messrs, Joseph T. and James G. Austen, Another brother, Mr. Willie Austen, was killed by lightning while on horseback several years ago, and still another brother, Mr. Henry Austen, died recently in Texas. Norway makes a good thing out of her winter climate. She exports about 700,-000 tons of best lake ice yearly to the other European countries. One company alone can send away 2,000 tons a day.

The real estate men were busy as bees yesterday, and a number of big deeds were recorded.

J. B. Elam & Co., J. Thompson Brown & Co., Sutton & Co., Pollard & Bagby, Bowe & Son, Wortham & Co., and others report good sales, mostly in Lee District and the West End.

The feature of yesterday was the announcement that Captain Joseph E. Willard had become a large investor in Richmond property. It is no longer a secret that Captain Willard has bought for investment 250 feet on Monument. Avenue west of the Lee Monument, for which he is said to have paid close to $50,000. His purchase for a home is east of the monument.

Messrs. Pollard & Bagby have sold 33 feet on West Broad Street, between Madison and Monroe Streets, for $425 per foot. The purchaser intends to erect a splendid store in the immediate future. The name of the purchaser is withheld.

J. B. Elam & Co. yesterday sold a residence on Third Street, near Cary. Price and purchaser's name not given They have also sold privately a lot in Lee District.

Messrs. J. B. Elam & Co. are arranging for the owners to have erected in the near future two eight-room and two six-room dwellings on Taylor and Linden Streets. The houses will be of brick and modern in every respect, and will be built for investment purposes.

There is a report that eleven stores are soon to be erected on Broad Street in Lee District, and that they will be handsome establishments. They are to go up, so the report says, between Lombardy and Allison Streets.

The A. J. Chewning Company sold yesterdya at public auction No. 1311 North Twenty-second Street to Mr. A. L. Stone for $1,600.

THE GOVERNMENT CLOSES IN THE GREEN TRIAL

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 1.-The government to-day closed its case in the trial of former State Senator George E. Green, of Birmingham, N. Y., who is being tried under two indictments charging conspiracy, in connection with the sale of time recording clocks to the Post-office Department. When the government had rested its case, counsel for Mr. Green moved the court to instruct the grounds submitted in their demurrors, filed at the beginning of the trial, and upon the ground that the testimony is not sufficient to sustain the charges made in the indictment. The court tooy the in the indictment. The court took the motion under advisement until Monday.

canal affairs before the Senate Committee on Interocennic Canals. He was again questioned by Senator Morgan.

The questions particularly had reference to the 5,000,000 francs in stock set aside for Colombia in the new Panama Canal Company in consideration of the formation of the new company. Mr. Cromwell said he had no part in getting that concession.

"If thore was any discredit I presume you do not wish to claim it?" said Mr. Morgan.

"I cannot see that there was any discredit in the company getting an extension and paying its money for it, rejoined Mr. Cromwell. "You don't?" asked Mr. Morgan. "That very extension cost 100,000 lives and $5,000,000 in dobts. "I have seen no trace of the horrors you mention," said Mr. Cromwell.

Mr. Morgan asked about certain letters written by Mr. Cromwell to Mr. Hay containing the statements that was about to break out in Colombia and giving evidence that Mr. Cromwell was cognizant of the conditions in that vepublic, Mr. Cromwell admitted writing the letters, but would not say he remembered their contents.
